RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Participating vehicles shall be motorized private vehicles (not commercial or public vehicles), travel on 4 wheels and must have valid road tax & insurance as at the day of event.
2. Two (2) and a maximum of four (4) members in a car and the driver & navigator or one member must have valid driving licenses at the day of event.
3. All participants must sign the declaration of indemnity before their entry are accepted. Parent/guardian must sign the declaration of indemnity on behalf of participants who are minors.
4. Any changes to the entry form must be made before the briefing session. Otherwise teams are deemed to consist of members stated in their entry forms.
5. The organizer reserves the right to amend the rules or change or postpone the date, or cancel the event if it is deemed necessary. In the event of a cancellation, reimbursement of entry fee will be made accordingly.
6. The organizer also reserves the right to disqualify or impose penalty points to teams found to have supplied false information in the entry forms or collaborated or cheated in the hunt.
7. All teams will be duly informed of the venue date of the briefing session and at least one team member is required to attend the briefing session, and will be responsible for the dissemination of any information items and clues given at the briefing session to the rest of their team members.
8. Competition numbers and other stickers of the sponsors must be placed as instructed by the organizer and must remain on the vehicle throughout the hunt. No other stickers or forms of advertising other than those provided by the organizer shall be permitted. Participants are also to comply with the dress code for the event as determined by the organizer. The organizer reserves the right to impose penalty points or disqualify teams for failure to do so.
9. A Treasure Hunt is not A Race. DO NOT SPEED. Any violations of Laws such as speed trap will be considered as reason for disqualification.
10. All treasures submitted in the hunt shall belong to the organizer and no team shall have a claim to them.
11. The winner is the team which scores the highest number of points, with subsequent positions determined accordingly. In the event of a tie, tie-breakers will be applied, and these will be made known at briefing session.
12. All decisions of the organizer in all matters of the event shall be final and binding on all participants.
